

Brainstorming Notes

Try and answer the following questions about your story's main character:

- What is my main character's general disposition?
- Why are they this way?
- What is my main character's worst fear?
- What does my main character want more than anything in the world?